Coordinator's report read and commented on with questions being held until Katie Sevon, the Director returns at the next meeting.

Catherine Poe reported on the Fighting Hunger Conference she and Katie Sevon attending, accentuating the high and low points as well as upcoming federal legislation that can have a debilitating impact on the hunger/poverty problem.

Catherine reminded everyone to Save the Date — Saturday, April 6, 9 am till 1 pm for the 2nd annual Resource Day, encouraging all the agencies to have a vendor table.

The Program Reports and Scorecard will be addressed at the November meeting when Katie can attend.

The Roundtable discussion allowed participants to air their problems, challenges, successes, and hopes and goals for the future. Two common themes that ran through all of the discussion were the turnover of staff and the loopholes in various laws that allowed clients to fall through the cracks.

Meeting adjourned at 3:10.
